Over the Moon: TeleChoice partners Dignity Kitchen™ in delivering cheer to the elderly

- Third year partnership with Dignity Kitchen in supporting their twin mission of job creation for the disadvantaged and marginalised, and hands-on care and concern for the elderly

SINGAPORE – 30 October 2017 – Staff from homegrown TeleChoice International Limited (“TeleChoice”) once again lent their support to Dignity Kitchen’s social outreach programme “Lunch Treats for the Elderly” as part of the Group’s on-going corporate social responsibility (“CSR”) initiatives.

Mr Vincent Lim, President of TeleChoice said, “We have partnered with Dignity Kitchen since 2015 following the success of our maiden event. We are once again pleased to support their twin mission of job creation for those with disabilities, the disadvantaged and marginalised, and hands-on care and concern for the elderly. We are very encouraged by the response of our staff volunteers and look forward to inducting more staff to participate as we continue to look for initiatives which we can contribute and give back to the society at large.”

For this year’s event which was held over 28-29 September 2017, the Group donated S$10,000 for the lunch sponsorship on top of a special mooncake making session to mark the Mid-Autumn Festival celebration and to bring extra cheer to the elderly. Over 30 staff volunteers from TeleChoice and its parent company, ST Telemedia, participated enthusiastically alongside the elderly to churn out snow skin mooncakes. The mooncake making session was led by a disadvantaged hawker from Dignity Kitchen, Singapore’s first hawker training school for the disabled and disadvantaged with the objective of bettering the lives and opportunities of its graduates.

Voila! – the finished mooncakes made by the elderly and staff volunteers

After the labourious mooncake-making session, the elderly were treated to a sumptuous lunch prepared by Dignity Kitchen's hawkers and served by the staff volunteers who further bonded with them through boisterous chit-chat and belting out popular karaoke hits, a favourite past-time of the elderly. The event ended in high spirits with the elderly bringing back their handmade mooncakes to share with other residents and loved ones.
